

Learning & Performance Improvement Solutions specializes in creating learning material and training programs to help your employees and organization succeed!

Would you like to convert your existing training into a virtual instructor-led or self-paced, online format? Are you looking to diversify your offerings and create your own online courses or videos for your company? Do you need to create job aids or workshops to help employees gain new knowledge and skills to adapt to your business pivot? We'd be glad to partner and help!

LPI Solution's services include:

- Building online courses and virtual instructor-led training
- Creating written job aids and manuals
- Producing videos and microlearning
- Strategic consultation on learning strategy
- Workshops on designing, developing and facilitating training
- Knowledge transfer – transitions
